

Royal Neighbors To Hold Annual Spring Meeting

The Annual Spring meeting of the Southern California Association of the Royal Neighbors of America will be held at the Elks Temple in Los Angeles on Friday, according to Mrs. Sam Shepherd, Oracle. The State Supervisor, Christiana Hammel will open the afternoon session at one p.m. and preside over the School of Instruction. The evening meeting will open at 7:30 during which there will be initiation of candidates from the various Camps of Los Angeles and Orange Counties, comprising the Association.

To accommodate the large number who have expressed a desire to attend both sessions it was decided at the last meeting of Torrance Camp to charter a Torrance Municipal Bus. This bus will leave Torrance at 12 noon and return after the night session. For reservations the members are asked to contact Mrs. Belva Brase, phone 415-R or Mrs. Sam Shepherd, phone 2415-W. Other Royal Neighbors in Torrance or vicinity who wish to avail themselves of this transportation are also invited, and are asked to phone the above officers, or any Torrance Royal Neighbor who will assist them in making arrangements.

Torrance Y Teens Elect Officers For Spring Term

With the beginning of the new semester, Torrance Y-teens of the YWCA have been electing new officers to serve for the spring term. The Betas will have as their leaders Betty Gyllenskog, president; Delores Knuutila, vice-president; Joyce Bernhardt, program chairman; Carol Darst, secretary; Gloria McCann, treasurer; Stella Emery, chaplain; Nancy Henry and Shirley Smith, sergeant at arms. Jean Lancaster and Frances Barrington are the advisors of this active group.

Flamingos

Serving as leaders of the S.S.W. teens will be: Ann Leo, president; Carole Wiitanen, vice-president; and Lucille Bridges, treasurer. The advisors are Mrs. L. G. Pulliam and Mrs. Sally Kaye.

Patli Smith is the president of the Seaside club and Mrs. Darrel Smith is the advisor.

DDT PROOF

While flies in many areas now resist the effect of DDT and Lindane they can nevertheless be effectively controlled by proper sanitation measures, says Dr. Roy O. Gilbert, Los Angeles County Health Officer.

Pensioners To Hear Talk

A meeting of Torrance-Lomita area retired persons other than state old-age pensioners will be held at 2 p.m. March 22 in the new Sailors Union of the Pacific Hall at 505 Marine Ave., Wilmington. The non-political forum session is being organized by Edsel Newton, veteran harbor district newspaperman. The speaker will review results of several years of study of the problems of inactive persons who are living on fixed incomes.

KILL THAT FLY!
Kill that fly! A female house fly lays up to 500 eggs in a season, and some lay as many as 2000. It's well to remember that a dead fly lays no eggs!

Need Foster Homes Here For Children

Foster homes are needed for children in the harbor area, according to Mrs. M. Q. Wallace, principal of Carson St. Elementary School.

While speaking before the Harbor Welfare Council, two officials of the County Public Welfare Commission, Mrs. Thelma Shanks and Mrs. Irene Carver, cited the need for four types of foster homes, Mrs. Wallace said.

A good foster home must meet several requirements, Mrs. Wallace said. There should be plans for fire safety, sleeping facilities, play areas and equipment—and a love in the heart for children.

Carson Chamber Holds Meeting

Mr. Lloyd Desmond announced the Carson Chamber of Commerce held their recent meeting at the Lone Pine Inn. John E. Huffstutter, guest speaker of the evening lectured on Civil Defense.

Under discussion during the business meeting was the rejection of the proposed Avalon Village Esplanade Contest for grammar school students by the Board of Education. The Board thought it more suitable for high school students.

The Chamber has organized a soft ball team to be known as the Carson Merchants Ball Team. Bill Robinson will act as business manager and Pete Bronovich will manage the team.
